

R-34 SHORT OF FUEL; WILL STOP AT BOSTON

British Airship Battles Storm—Calls for Help

BULLETIN.
WASHINGTON, July 6.—At 1:29 a. m. this morning (Sunday) the navy communications office received the following communication direct from the airship R-34:

"Will land at Mantauk Point, report time later."

BULLETIN.
WASHINGTON, July 5.—Contact with the British dirigible R-34, who calls for help continued to grow more urgent all day as she neared the finish of her trans-Atlantic journey only to find gasoline and sustaining hydrogen gas exhausted was established tonight at 11:40 by the destroyer Bancroft of the United States navy.

BULLETIN.
MINNEOLA, N. Y., July 5.—The dirigible R-34 will put in at Boston to re-fuel and will proceed to Roosevelt Field here Sunday, according to a message from Commander Scott dated at 11:04 p. m., and relayed to Minneola, by the navy department of communications at Boston. The message requested that the dirigible be kept informed as to weather changes thru the commandant of the first naval district at Boston.

Asks For Help.
Washington, July 5.—The British dirigible R-34, flying from Scotland to New York reported to the navy department at 11:49 o'clock tonight that she was 170 miles northeast of Boston and slowly making her way there over the open sea.

When the message was sent the R-34 was 85 miles southwest of Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. It was relayed from the Otter Cliff Station as follows:

"Position R-34, 67 degrees and 30 minutes west, 43 degrees and 26 minutes north. Course southwest by south by magnet compass."

The following message was received from the R-34 at the navy department at 11:23 p. m.:

"Flying 1,500 feet above sea. Come and meet us. Making for Boston. Rush. Very short of gasoline."

Warships Answer Call.
New York, July 5.—Battling her way south, short of fuel and with an electrical storm raging across her path, the huge dirigible, the R-34 was tonight in the vicinity of St. John N. B., still about 500 miles from her goal at Minneola, N. Y. At the same time American warships were rushing at top speed up the Maine coast in answer to wireless calls from the giant airship from the navy department at Washington. After a long fight with fog and contrary winds the commander of the dirigible flashed a message that his petrol supply was falling rapidly and that assistance might be needed.

In answer to the message the American naval authorities ordered the converted yacht U. S. S. Satilla, the nearest available vessel, to start from Machias Bay, Maine. Scarcely had the yacht cleared when she was followed by the submarine chaser 407 from Bar Harbor and shortly afterward the U. S. Destroyer Stevens steamed out of Boston Harbor under forced draught.

Throw Out Cord of Tugs.
From St. Johns a "cordon of British tugs was thrown out and in the stormy bay of Fundy, the French cruiser Surcouf answered the summons, starting south in an effort to cross the path of the airship.

All day long every wireless station from the northern coast of New Foundland to the Mouth of the Hudson was manned by eager listeners and watchers who strained every eye and ear for sight or signal of the traveller of the skies but only once did she emerge long enough from the mists to be recognized. This glimpse was caught from the Nova Scotia town of Harrisboro, thirty-five miles west of Halifax, the town at which the Handley-Page biplane in flight from Harbor Grace, N. F., to Minneola, N. Y., made a forced landing early this morning. The mammoth airship passed directly over the lighthouse of the port at 2:15 this afternoon.

When first sighted she appeared to be down by the head but before she had passed out of sight had apparently righted herself and was proceeding on an even keel. Sailor watchers estimated that she was making about 25 knots an hour.

Fuel Getting Low.
The first intimation of possible trouble was contained in a wireless message intercepted at 11 a. m. and addressed to the British admiralty in which Major Scott, commander of the dirigible, reported that his fuel was getting low. Three previous messages, giving position had concluded with a cheery "all well."

Five minutes after the message to the admiralty, Commander Zachary Lansdowne, U. S. N., in-

Gate Receipts For Fight May Total $860,000

TOLEDO, O., July 5.—Altho official accounting has not been completed, Tex Rickard, promoter of the heavyweight championship contest between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey estimated tonight that the gate receipts would total between $500,000 and $800,000. Revenue agents are assisting in checking up the receipts to determine the amount of war tax due the government. Basing the receipts on $600,000 the government will receive approximately $54,600 while approximately $42,000 will be turned over to Toledo's charity fund.

The city under the agreement with Promoter Rickard is to receive seven per cent of the gross receipts. Rickard already has paid $30,000 to this fund.

Mayor Seiber plans to use this money in sending orphans and children of Toledo's poor families on vacation trips to Michigan. He also plans to devote a part of the money to endow beds for the poor in hospitals. Dempsey, the conqueror of Willard left tonight for Cincinnati to open a theatrical engagement there tomorrow. He is to receive $7,000 a week.

Willard spent the day resting at his temporary home in company with his wife and a few personal friends. Aside from his swelling on the right side of his face, which was subsiding under cold applications, he was none the worse apparently for his encounter with Dempsey. He accepted his defeat without any attempt to excuse it or belittle the new champion's fists prowess.

"There is little to add to what is already known," the defeated champion said. "After the first hard swing to the jaw in the first round Dempsey came in so fast that I never had a chance to clear my head and square away for a better offense or defense. I was fighting in a daze. This is no attempt to alibi my defeat or take the credit from Dempsey who is a fast, clever, hard hitting opponent, ranking with the best of the heavy-weights. Now I am thru with boxing and expect to be just plain Jess Willard. I hope, however, that the public will remember me as a boxer who always tried to give his best in the ring, did his share to keep the boxing game above suspicion."

Efforts were being made today to obtain permission from proper authorities, for the exhibition of moving pictures of the fight in the soldier camps and hospitals where wounded overseas fighters are recuperating. It is hoped that eventually the pictures may be shown in public generally without violating the law.

Because of the controversy over the number of knockdowns Dempsey scored in the first round, the exhibition of the pictures here tomorrow is being awaited to settle the dispute. Referee Pecord said there were six knockdowns. Dempsey believes he felled the champion seven times. Boxing experts at the ringside vary from five to seven knockdowns.

Offer Dempsey $30,000.
Atlantic City, N. J., July 5.—Fight promoters connected with a local sporting club today wired Jack Dempsey, the new heavyweight champion, guaranteeing him $30,000 for an eight round bout with Willie Meehan here Labor Day.

PLAN LARGE RAIL STATION FOR CHICAGO
CHICAGO, July 5.—Chicago will have the largest railway passenger station in the world if the plans underlying the Illinois Central railroad electrification ordinance to be submitted to the city council next Monday by the railway terminals committee are approved.

The proposed new station will be more than an eighth of a mile in width and have train sheds more than a half a mile in length. The Illinois Central railroad plans to expend $72,000,000 on the new terminal.

TWO ARMY PRISONERS ESCAPE
New York, July 5.—Two army prisoners, one sentenced to life imprisonment for murder, and the other to fifteen years for attempted murder, escaped from their guards last night when the Transport Mount Vernon was nearing New York harbor and were still at liberty when the ship docked today.

a courtesy to the American government sent a query to the navy department on behalf of Major Scott, asking if a destroyer could proceed to the Bay of Fundy, "if required." In less than three hours another asked Washington if destroyers were coming and two hours later a more urgent appeal flashed to the navy department asking that destroyers meet the super-Zeppelin "at earliest possible moment."

Earlier in the day wireless experts had expressed the opinion that something had gone wrong with the R-34's receiving wireless apparatus and this opinion was confirmed by the apparent difficulty in communicating to the airship word that the American naval authorities were doing everything in their power to render assistance.

General von Stockhausen was quoted as saying the officers' dissatisfaction was over the signing of the so-called peace treaty. He said the officers were soldiers not politicians and cannot be expected to agree to surrender their own commander. The officers he said were no longer willing to support the government in military operations.

The correspondent transmitted a report that General von Stockhausen's officers and troops intended to take military action against Poland on their own initiative.

DIXON, Ill., July 5.—Clyde Wicher, caretaker of the Lee County infirmary for the past fifteen years, was today indicted by the county grand jury for mismanagement of the home. The jury also found that Supervisors James Buckley, C. C. Buckaloo and W. J. Edwards, former chairmen of the board of supervisors and Supervisor J. M. Cleary of Dixon, had violated the law by purchasing goods at the county farm, but such purchases had been made more than 18 months prior to the report and hence prosecution of limitations. He asks President Ebert of Germany to inform the allies to this effect, according to a Copenhagen dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co.

The field marshal arrived in Hanover on Friday, the dispatch states, and telegraphed the following message to President Ebert: "The signing of the peace treaty gives me occasion for declaring that I am responsible for the decisions and acts of main headquarters since August 29, 1916, and also that all proclamations and orders of his majesty the emperor and king, concerning the waging of warfare were issued upon my advice and upon my responsibility."

"I beg you therefore to inform the German people and the allied governments of this declaration."

The decision by Field Marshal von Hindenburg that he was responsible for acts committed by the Germans and for proclamations of the former emperor is the second to be made by a German leader since it was officially announced that the allies purpose to place on trial political and military leaders of Germany for causing the war and for violations of the rules of warfare. The other leader who assumed responsibility for the acts of former emperor William was Dr. Theodor von Bethmann-Hollweg, former German chancellor, who held office at the beginning of the war.

Kills Girl; Takes Body To Police And Surrenders

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 5.—"I killed her because I loved her and she wouldn't marry me as she promised. I love her still and am ready to die for my act because I want to go to her."

Harry S. New of Glendale, claiming to be the son of United States Senator Harry S. New, of Indiana, thus concluded an account of the killing of Miss Freda Lesser, his fiancée at a lonely spot in Topanga Canyon, about 25 miles northwest of here early today.

Without apparent remorse New reviewed in detail to newspapermen and police officers his actions which included his driving to the central police station with his fiancée's body in the rear seat and surrendering.

"We had planned to be married today," he said. "At the last moment Freda interposed objections and I proposed we take an automobile ride to some quiet spot where we could talk things over. Teaching a lonely spot, I started pleading with her to marry me at once. She remained obstinate and told me that she was expecting to become a mother and that she had decided to undergo a surgical operation rather than marry me. That made me mad. I lost my head and almost before I knew it, had snatched a revolver which was kept in the machine as protection against highwaymen and shot her thru the head."

"For nearly two hours I drove with Freda lying beside me. Then I dawned on me what a horrible deed I had done. I decided the best thing to do was to bring the body to the police station and surrender."

Now, who is 20 years old, is a graduate of an Indiana military academy. He said he later attended Notre Dame University. He met Miss Lesser at a local manufacturing plant where he was employed as a truck driver and she as stenographer. The young woman was 21 years old.

OUT PRESIDENT OF PERU; LEGUIRA TAKES OFFICE

Virtually No Fighting Marks Revolt—Imprison Pardo

LIMA, Peru, Friday, July 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—Augusto B. Leguia, late today assumed office as provisional president of Peru and took up his residence in the government palace as a result of the successful overthrow earlier in the day of President Pardo.

Imprison Deposed President.

Senator Pardo, his ministers and a number of high officials of the army and navy, are in prison. Pardo being detained in the penitentiary here. Virtually no fighting and no casualties marked the overthrow of the Pardo government. Senator Leguia is supported by virtually all of the army and naval forces in Lima and public opinion here apparently is behind him.

The revolution began at 3 o'clock this morning with an attack on the palace by two regiments of troops and a force of police. By 6 o'clock President Pardo had been deposed and Senator Leguia proclaimed provisional president. The movement was similar to that which resulted in the overthrow of President Guillermo Billinghurst on Feb. 1, 1914.

It was announced late today that President Pardo would be placed on trial on charges of having violated the constitution and of having conspired against the institutions of the republic.

The inauguration of Senator Leguia as president, it is said, probably will take place within two months. The provisional president claims that he received 160,000 votes of the 200,000 cast in the recent presidential election.

Cheer for Leguia.

The Fourth of July had been proclaimed a national holiday by President Pardo. Thousands of persons thronged the streets today and cheered for Senator Leguia. A crowd assembled before the government palace and called on Leguia for a speech. The provisional president speaking from the balcony of the palace declared that he intended to organize a strong government on a popular basis and to increase the army and navy to the status they had held during his previous term as president from 1908 to 1912. He said he would defend the principles of justice and right which had triumphed in the great war and would associate Peru without reserve with the cause of the allies. He intended, he said, to extend every facility for the introduction of foreign capital to aid in the development of national resources.

Senator Leguia in a statement to The Associated Press said he had made every effort to avoid deposing President Pardo by force but it had become increasingly evident that conspiracy was afoot to deprive him of the office to which he had been chosen in the recent election. Money, the provisional president said, was used freely in an effort to purchase votes of members of congress to annul the elections.

To Deal Justly

Last night Senator Leguia declared he learned of a plot to arrest him and send him into exile, and as a last resort he gave orders to the army chiefs favorable to him to be ahead with their plan to overthrow Pardo and his ministers. He added would be dealt with justly. Senator Leguia said he had justly personal animosity against any member of the Pardo Government.

There are no reports from the provinces concerning the situation there but Senator Leguia and his associates expect no difficulties in that quarter.

The mobilization was ordered upon receipt of a "personal message" from Captain Newman regimental adjutant in Champaign to have the company ready to move with six hours notice. The orders received here early in the evening did not designate the prospective destination of the troops and gave no intimation of the location of trouble.

All Quite in Champaign.

Champaign, Ill., July 5.—Altho the street car strike, which started last Thursday, is still in effect everything is quiet and it looks as though there would be no need to call out the state militia. Following a little trouble between the strikers and non-striker men here last Thursday night a call was sent to Springfield to see if troops could be secured if needed and it is probable that this call resulted in various military companies being asked to get ready.

About half of the local street car employees are out and the remainder are running the cars. Street car service was discontinued at 7 o'clock this evening but the company announced that service would be resumed tomorrow morning.

No Orders Issued.

Chicago, July 5.—No orders have been issued to mobilize or move any Illinois troops and no situation has arisen within the state to require any such orders. Adjutant General Frank S. A BUSINESS ORGANIZATION.

The Chamber of Commerce membership committee is waging a quiet campaign. Members of the committee state that they are being cordially received and that men who have never before been identified with the commercial organizations of the city are enrolling. There is a certain definite place in the public life of the community that the Chamber of Commerce or a similar organization alone can successfully fill. There are evidences that continued and greater prosperity will come to Jacksonville. There is need for an organization of business men, and so the interest that the public is showing is indicative of the spirit of the times.

PUBLICITY PAID.

The fact that the anarchistic plots predicted for July 4 did not materialize is proof both of the value of the secret service and publicity. The "reds" knew the government agents were everywhere watching them, and they knew too that the expected assault on the peace of the people had been extensively advertised. They evidently decided that July 4 was not the time to strike at liberty.

COMMUNITY SPIRIT.

Certainly Jacksonville had all the evidences of a well policed city on July 4. With thousands of people thronging the streets all day long there was no uproar or disturbance. Civilians sworn in to special duty joined with the regularly appointed policemen to maintain order. A number of these civilian officials were on duty until midnight Friday serving without pay. Certainly here is an evidence of the much desired community spirit.

dence of the much desired community spirit.

THE DEEPER MEANING.

There was pomp and glory, with music and color, in the events of July 4, but these external things only served to emphasize the real meaning of the day. A year ago residents of the county were few indeed who looked forward hopefully enough to believe that by another Independence Day the war would be over and "their soldiers" home again. But that very thing happened, and so July 4, 1919, became a day of thankfulness. As thousands watched the men in khaki or those in the uniform of the navy pass in review, there welled up a feeling of thankfulness that the war was over—that the young men of Morgan county had been able to lay down their arms and once more take up the works of peace.

For some it was a day of sadness as they thought of graves in France or in the military cemeteries here in the U. S. It took courage on their part to join in the joy of others, but that courage was given them, and so many a father and mother with aching heart was enabled to join with apparent joyousness in the homecoming celebration of Friday. It was indeed a great day of thanksgiving. The noise and clamor did not take away the deeper meaning. No other July 4 will ever be quite so significant.

THE NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE.

The referendum on the measures proposed by the Farmers' Non Partisan party of North Dakota provides that this organization is putting over on the people of the state measures which at the best have the support of a bare majority of the voters; in other words that they are not responsive to the popular demand the leaders of the organization profess to be meeting. But for the disposition of members of the Non Partisan party to be loyal to the organization and leadership it is evident that the proposed laws would not have stood a ghost of a show at the ballot box. The scant majority by which they were approved gives evidence that the tide of revolutionary radicalism is receding in the northwest.

THERE'S SOME DIFFERENCE.

As Thurston says: "We are willing to be guided by and to live and die by the fundamental principles taught by Washington, Jefferson, Hamilton, Madison and Franklin, and their mighty comrades, but how vast the difference between Washington's days and ours! In Washington's day you could take a buckboard or a packet boat and in a few months you could probably reach Charleston from New York. You could cross the waves of the Atlantic in eight weeks at that time. The National Republican suggests that the trouble is that there has been more progress in boats and vehicles than there has been in United States senators. In other words, an Ashurst and a Hitchcock are not to a Madison and a Hamilton as the present day ocean liner is to a eighteenth century sailing vessel, nor as a high-powered automobile is to an ox-cart. There are comparisons that do not compare.

THE FINANCIAL PROBLEM.

Now that the Fourth of July and the home-coming events have been properly and happily cared for, the people of Jacksonville can give some special thought to municipal affairs. It is understood that the financial report will soon be transmitted to the public by the city council and will thus let the people understand in a definite way just what are the financial facts. If the administration adheres to its policy, the action resulting from this explanation of finances will be whatever the people want. The mayor and councilmen have indicated time and again their desire to carry out the wishes of the people.

So it will be soon after the financial facts are presented that it will be "up to the people" to indicate what course they wish to follow for meeting the city's big floating debt. It is a question which cannot be ignored. It is simply a question of method. Some way, some time these debts must be paid and certain it is that the city cannot go forward—cannot make any progress along any line—until its honest financial obligations are met.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

REVENGE

Whoever said, "Revenge is sweet," had no experience with toes; his guess was wrong, yet men repeat his idle words in verse and prose. If some one does you grievous wrong, you'd like to rend him limb from limb; perhaps for years you yearn and long to throw the harpoon into him. The vengeance thoughts you entertain don't do you any good at all; kindness alone is safe and sane, old sores are poor things to recall. Perhaps at last you have the chance to punish him who did you harm; you prod him with your poisoned lance and find the trick has little charm. In fact, you feel as small and mean, when you have squared an ancient "hate," as though you'd run a submarine for Wilhelm, Prussia's cast-off skate. Bill Johnson swiped my pointer pup, and ran the blamed thing off its legs; I vowed he'd take the bitter cup and drink the worm-wood to the dregs. But when I'd thought for half an hour, I saw how vain were loud lamentations; I said aloud "Revenge is sour; the pup was worth but twenty cents!" My foot had me a jolt and jar, I do not let my blue blood boil; forgiveness is better far than nursing grudges till they spoil.

THRESHERMEN FIX PRICES

A number of threshermen held a meeting at the court house Saturday to discuss the charges to be made this year for threshing. After some discussion it was decided to leave the prices as they were last year. The scale will therefore be as follows:

Oats 4¢ per bushel.
Wheat 8¢ per bushel.
Rye 10¢ per bushel.

There were some of the threshermen who believed the price should be higher this year but the majority favored the 1918 scale.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Willis, Mrs. Herman Smith and daughter Helen and Paul Whipp enjoyed the Fourth in Jacksonville but met with a bad accident on the return trip. It was about 8 o'clock when they neared the bridge west of Lymanville. The dust was thick and they failed to see a large hole near the bridge. The car wheel struck the hole and the car was overturned into the ditch. Mr. Whipp extricated himself first and then assisted the others. Mrs. Willis was not injured in any way and Mrs. Smith was only slightly bruised about the face and arms. Helen Smith suffered a bruised shoulder, while Mr. Willis sustained a number of painful injuries, dislocating his right shoulder bone and having four ribs broken. Mr. Whipp had two ribs broken and was otherwise somewhat bruised. Dr. H. H. Fletcher and E. B. Waters were called to attend the sufferers and all possible was done for their comfort. It was really a miraculous escape from death and all the members of the party were congratulating themselves that their injuries are comparatively slight.

Jesse Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Willis, arrived at his home in Winchester Friday, having received his honorable discharge from the army. He has been in the service for the past two years, much of which time has been spent overseas as a member of the 91st aero squadron.

MONDAY and TUESDAY

Ernest Truex and Louise Huff

Your Best Bet for a Sure Laugh! Here's Why:

1. It's a rip-roaring comedy, with gobs of fun and a kick like a mule's. The war's over. People want to laugh. So "Oh, You Women!"
2. It's up-to-the-second and a jump ahead. The boys coming home; women in soldier's jobs, and the deuce to pay when the girls don't watch their steps.
3. It's a John Emerson-Anita Loos Production. That means careful writing, masterly directing, brains, action, class, a powerful appeal to the crowds.
4. It's a woman's picture and a man's picture. The women will like it because it laughs at the "e-e-e-e" who get on real wives' and mothers' nerves. The men will like it because they don't want any third sex stealing their pants.

Inside Information!

Unless you buy your clothes NOW—whether ready made or tailor made—you are going to pay a much higher price for them. I have received reliable information from New York, the price fixing center of the business world today, and learned facts about the cloth business that astounded me. These facts concern your pocketbook from today on.

First: The world is four years behind on the manufacture of cloth.

Second: The world, now peace is signed, will place cloth orders for nearly twenty million men returned to civilian life for twice as many ragged people in Europe who still have the money to buy.

Third: By the law of supply and demand, prices of cloth in the next ninety days will reach a figure which may make it hard for the average man to get a GOOD suit of clothes.

Knowing these things I have invested what capital I commanded in the best cloth obtainable, American and English make. I did more than this, this year. I brought to Jacksonville high grade, comparatively low priced fabrics never before seen outside of London and New York. I did this because I know there is a demand for the cloth in this city.

UNLESS YOU BUY NOW I CANNOT SELL YOU LATER—FOR THE REASON I HAVE GIVEN—AT PRESENT PRICES.

Consider this also: The foregoing statement is an HONEST statement by a Jacksonville tailor, to his trade—not to sell goods—but to advise that trade of a fact which is to their interest.

If you will drop into the shop I can make this clear—you need not buy—if you are interested in clothes—in saving money—you better buy NOW or pay a premium on your clothes later.

Matrimonial

Burnett-Austin.

Frank L. Burnett of Franklin and Miss Dorothy A. Austin of Waverly were united in marriage at 10:15 o'clock Friday night by Justice A. B. Opperman at his home on South Mauvaisterre street.

The couple expected to have the ceremony performed earlier, but could not locate County Clerk Riggs who was enjoying the Fourth with his family at Nichols park. After trying to locate Mr. Riggs the wedding party, composed of eight people, camped on the county clerk's porch until his return.

When Mr. Riggs returned and found what was wanted he came down to the court house, got the license and then took the couple to Justice Opperman's residence in his automobile where the ceremony was performed. They were attended by Zelah R. Austin and Georgia Stillwell.

Spink-Wyatt.

Yesterday afternoon Paul Spink and Miss Mabel Wyatt, both of this city, were quietly married at the residence of Rev. Mr. Parrish, pastor of the First Congregational church of Springfield. The bride was handsomely arrayed in a dress of white satin and carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The wedding was witnessed only by the officiating minister and his family.

Mrs. L. J. Ward of Springfield is a sister of the groom and was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Spink on West Lafayette avenue during the week and Friday evening the young people accompanied her to Springfield.

The groom is a young man well known in this city where he has spent a good part of his life. He is a former pupil of our public schools and later attended Whipple Academy from which he graduated two years ago and soon after entered the service of his country from which he recently returned. He has a responsible position in the Terre Haute branch of the great firm of Swift & Co., and stands well with his employers and all who know him and he returned from the war with a clean record.

The young lady is the daughter of Mrs. L. E. McFarland of 540 South Prairie street and is a native of Jacksonville in which city her life has been spent. She graduated from the city high school two years ago and has been studying since at the Woman's college in this place. She is a young lady of many admirable qualities and has a host of friends in her native city.

The plans of the young people are not fully decided on as yet though they will be very likely to go to Terre Haute to live if the young man keeps his place with Swift & Co. Their large list of friends will unite in tendering them heartily good wishes.

Watt-Deters.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Deters and Mr. Floyd Watt, made last evening, will come as a surprise to their many friends. The young people were married in Virginia Monday June 30, by Rev. Mr. Cruikshank, pastor of the Methodist church, at his residence.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Hulda Deters of South East street and received her education in the public schools of this city and for more than a year has held a position as clerk at Passavant hospital. The groom is a son of Mrs. Theresa Watt of South Diamond street, and is at home on furlough from U. S. Army General Hospital at Ft. Sheridan, Ill. He left Jacksonville with Company B, I. N. G., and served for a year in France, where he was wounded. He will return to Ft. Sheridan July 18th where he expects to receive his discharge. ## MEREDOSIA SOLDIER

IS AT HOME AGAIN.

Among the Morgan county soldiers who took part in the great home-coming parade Friday morning was Edward H. Schaefer, son of Henry Schaefer of Meredosia. This young soldier arrived in the U. S. on June 26, after several months of service in France. He was sent first to Camp Stewart and later to Camp Grant, where he received his discharge on Thursday night. He arrived at Meredosia Friday morning and at once proceeded to this city to join in the festivities here.

Young Schaefer was one of the contingent which left this city May 10, 1918, for Fort Thomas, Ky. He was later transferred to Camp Wadsworth and after a brief training period here sailed for France on July 14, 1918. While in this city Mr. Schaefer was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Asa M. Robinson at their home on North Main street. Other Meredosia residents who were guests at the Robinson home were Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Berger, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Steinberg and son, Mrs. F. J. Unland, son and daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Stark and daughter, Miss Lela Schaefer and Edward H. Schaefer.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT NARROWLY AVERTED

What might have been a serious accident occurred Friday morning on South Main street. The small son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Helenthal of 966 East College avenue was seated on the curb watching the parade move past when one of the horses ridden by one of the young women in the parade suddenly swerved to the curb. One of the animal's hoofs grazed the child's leg, and but for the quick action of a bystander the child would almost certainly have been crushed. The parade was halted for a brief period while a physician examined the child and much relief was felt when it was found that there were no serious injuries. Naturally the child was badly frightened by the occurrence.

THOUSANDS MOVED IN HOME COMING PARADE

COUNTY PAID HONORS TO HER SOLDIERS

Patriotic Sentiment Seen Thru Pageant Features—Hundreds of Men In Khaki Cheered as They Marched—Floats Give Fine Expression to Peoples' Feeling.

Judged from every standard the Fourth of July home coming parade was a success. Thousands of people who were massed along the line of march agreed that it was the best parade they had ever seen in Jacksonville. There was music and color and pageantry all combined into a colossal patriotic exhibit. Behind it all there was a sublime thought and while enthusiasm was limitless it was apparent in the demeanor of the people that there was a deep feeling underlying all of the noise and applause.

Kept Fine Order
That ample and careful preparation had been made was fully evidenced from the splendid orderliness with which the pageant moved. The police department co-operating with the special force of marshals, made such arrangements that at no point was there confusion. Vehicles of all kinds had been kept from the business district. The spaces for viewing the parade had been so arranged that men, women and children by the thousands were spectators and in a comfortable way. These spectators were massed along the line of march clear from Church street to the square and then out South Main street to the Jacksonville State Hospital entrance. The people were spread over such a wide area that there were some observers who thought that the crowd was not as large as the occasion justified. But a little investigation gave real light on the subject and they found that the attendance was up to all expectations.

At the appointed hour, 11:30 o'clock, with the bands all playing the national anthem the bugler sounded the forward march and the great parade was in motion. There was no halting, there were no delays from the time of the start until the order to disband at Jacksonville State Hospital. Some idea of the parade features is conveyed in the paragraphs below:

Chief Marshal, Captain James M. Swales and assistants.
Platoon of police.
Miss Cora Cherry representing Columbia escorted by Miss Clara Russell and Miss Alberta Black representing the navy and Miss Helen Maddox and Miss Eula Priest representing the army.

Monday, Movies—A Charley Chaplin scream.
Tuesday, Vaudeville—Five big acts.
Wednesday, Sports, The Long Horn From Texas.
Thursday, Athletic Night—Boxing.
Friday, Concert—The Musical Four.
Saturday, Camp Talent—Singing, Dancing, etc.
Sunday, Religious Program—Movies.

On the float were Rev. W. E. Spoons, Henry Pinkerton of Jacksonville, with Wilson M. Smith of Waverly, all of whom were in the Y. M. C. A. service overseas. They were assisted on the float by J. S. Findley, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. Mr. Pinkerton, it will be remembered, went overseas in May, 1917, and did canteen work with the 3rd division. Wilson M. Smith was court on the Argonne-Meuse front operating a hot chocolate station. Friday he operated a lemonade station for the refreshment of the men in uniform.

Knights of Columbus.
Next came the parochial school children, eighty-five girls under the command of J. E. Sweeney, and 155 boys under command of Sgt. Casey. These little boys and girls all carried flags and wore caps or bonnets of the national colors and made a very pretty feature of the parade. They preceded the Knights of Columbus, but which was in charge of Joseph Becker, Carl Hagel, Frank Doyle and Edward Dowlin. These young men were uniformed in a way representing the several branches of service. The goods kept in a regulation K. of C. hut were on display and during the parade there was a liberal distribution of chewing gum and some other refreshments from this hut.

Members of the Knights of Columbus followed, P. J. Woulfe carrying the American flag. The service flag was in charge of Thomas Duffner, John Buckley, and John Doyle. District Deputy John J. Ferry and Father Cahill were leaders and J. E. Fogarty a lieutenant.

The next float was that of Capps Sons, a memorial to dead heroes. A beautiful white cross was in prominent view with a star above it. Miss Mabel Rogers was with this float, in the costume of a Red Cross nurse.

No float was more enthusiastically received than that of the Salvation Army, in charge of Salvation Army "ladies." The float represented a building in France, shattered by shells. The building, with roof gone and with walls penetrated here and there by shell shot, was realistically reproduced. This float was prepared by Jacksonville Lodge of Elks as a courtesy to the Salvation Army. As the float moved along the line of march the "ladies" handed out doughnuts to the children.

The beneficent work of the Red Cross was brought to notice by a number of floats which have previously been described. In addition to the floats there was a group of Red Cross nurses and after them came the young women of the Red Cross canteen.

The Alexander Red Cross was also represented by an appropriate float.

From State Hospital
Another group of marshals next had place in the parade, preceding the Alton White Hussars band. They preceded the special section of the parade which had been arranged by Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Hill and their assistants at Jacksonville State Hospital. On the first float the original thirteen colonies were represented by young women and then came a float termed "1776." Mrs. Hill and a group of young women rode in a handsomely decorated car carrying a flower made replica of the Liberty bell.

A squad of returned soldiers followed, serving as advance guard for the carryall which had as passengers eight or ten veterans of the '60s, several of whom are near the century mark in age.

Another float brought to mind the Maine and all it represented in the year 1918.

"Peace was the theme of the next of the floats in this group. There were five young women making up the tableau and the symbolic dove of peace was conspicuous.

The next float represented a cottage home which had been arranged by the War Mothers of America. Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel and Mrs. C. M. Stewart could be seen, one at either door of the cottage, on bidding farewell to a soldier in uniform and the other welcoming a returning soldier.

A large party of uniformed attendants from Jacksonville State hospital marched next, preceding a float which gave an idea of the work done in the sewing and laundry departments of the hospital.

Hayes, Alma Siegel, Billy Siegel, and William Ankrum, Billy Siegel, and The Patriotic drum corps under the leadership of Charles DeSilva and with Charles Vieira as the versatile drum major made a decided hit. The members of the corps all wore colonial costumes of rich colors and materials. In fact, the whole group of musicians represented "The Spirit of '76."

The Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. float had been arranged to give the public a first hand idea of the association's war work. A canteen with its wares was in view as the canteen was one of the important details of work during the war, altho it had not been planned for the Y to attend to this line of activity. In a conspicuous place in the hut was a printed program presenting the typical of seven days as provided by the Y. It read as follows:

Monday, Movies—A Charley Chaplin scream.

Tuesday, Vaudeville—Five big acts.

Wednesday, Sports, The Long Horn From Texas.

Thursday, Athletic Night—Boxing.

Friday, Concert—The Musical Four.

Saturday, Camp Talent—Singing, Dancing, etc.

Sunday, Religious Program—Movies.

On the float were Rev. W. E. Spoons, Henry Pinkerton of Jacksonville, with Wilson M. Smith of Waverly, all of whom were in the Y. M. C. A. service overseas. They were assisted on the float by J. S. Findley, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. Mr. Pinkerton, it will be remembered, went overseas in May, 1917, and did canteen work with the 3rd division. Wilson M. Smith was court on the Argonne-Meuse front operating a hot chocolate station. Friday he operated a lemonade station for the refreshment of the men in uniform.

Knights of Columbus.
Next came the parochial school children, eighty-five girls under the command of J. E. Sweeney, and 155 boys under command of Sgt. Casey. These little boys and girls all carried flags and wore caps or bonnets of the national colors and made a very pretty feature of the parade. They preceded the Knights of Columbus, but which was in charge of Joseph Becker, Carl Hagel, Frank Doyle and Edward Dowlin. These young men were uniformed in a way representing the several branches of service. The goods kept in a regulation K. of C. hut were on display and during the parade there was a liberal distribution of chewing gum and some other refreshments from this hut.

Members of the Knights of Columbus followed, P. J. Woulfe carrying the American flag. The service flag was in charge of Thomas Duffner, John Buckley, and John Doyle. District Deputy John J. Ferry and Father Cahill were leaders and J. E. Fogarty a lieutenant.

The next float was that of Capps Sons, a memorial to dead heroes. A beautiful white cross was in prominent view with a star above it. Miss Mabel Rogers was with this float, in the costume of a Red Cross nurse.

No float was more enthusiastically received than that of the Salvation Army, in charge of Salvation Army "ladies." The float represented a building in France, shattered by shells. The building, with roof gone and with walls penetrated here and there by shell shot, was realistically reproduced. This float was prepared by Jacksonville Lodge of Elks as a courtesy to the Salvation Army. As the float moved along the line of march the "ladies" handed out doughnuts to the children.

The beneficent work of the Red Cross was brought to notice by a number of floats which have previously been described. In addition to the floats there was a group of Red Cross nurses and after them came the young women of the Red Cross canteen.

The Alexander Red Cross was also represented by an appropriate float.

From State Hospital
Another group of marshals next had place in the parade, preceding the Alton White Hussars band. They preceded the special section of the parade which had been arranged by Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Hill and their assistants at Jacksonville State Hospital. On the first float the original thirteen colonies were represented by young women and then came a float termed "1776." Mrs. Hill and a group of young women rode in a handsomely decorated car carrying a flower made replica of the Liberty bell.

A squad of returned soldiers followed, serving as advance guard for the carryall which had as passengers eight or ten veterans of the '60s, several of whom are near the century mark in age.

Another float brought to mind the Maine and all it represented in the year 1918.

"Peace was the theme of the next of the floats in this group. There were five young women making up the tableau and the symbolic dove of peace was conspicuous.

The next float represented a cottage home which had been arranged by the War Mothers of America. Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel and Mrs. C. M. Stewart could be seen, one at either door of the cottage, on bidding farewell to a soldier in uniform and the other welcoming a returning soldier.

engaged in this class of work and the same was true with the painting department.

The farm and garden float had products of the farm shown in variety while one of the famous dairy herd at the state hospital called attention to that important department.

Members of the Jacksonville State hospital base ball club formed the final feature of the hospital's substantial contribution to the parade.

Beauty Drum Corps.

Much has been written about the famous Pershing's Beauty Drum Corps of Pittsfield and they appeared with fine effect at this point in the parade. Ben H. Brunswick is the managing director.

The float of Illinois college was especially in memory of the fallen heroes of the college. The roll of honor contains the following: Glen W. Eckhard, John M. Widenham, Arthur Hinman, George M. Turl, Joseph E. Chamberlain, Fred L. Williams, Earl P. Sooy, Charles Haines, Leonard Young.

Another section of the parade came headed by five mounted marshals and the Virginia band preceding Co. C, under command of Lieut. Felix W. Farrell. Members of Hospitalier Commandery, Knights Templar made a splendid showing. They were preceded by the Virginia band and were in command of Alexander Rabjohns, eminent commander.

The Boy Scouts had a large delegation in the parade. The scouts have been so faithful in every war time event that their presence was expected.

The "First Ward Fellows" club marched next. Two little boys drawing miniature Red Cross wagons came first and they were followed by the forty or more boys and girls of the first ward, patriotically uniformed, who at intervals gave the cheer and the special song for which they had been trained by Mrs. W. P. Duncan. They gave evidence of the drilling they had done under the command of Sgt. Sweeney.

The Community Council and Anti-Tuberculosis floats were well executed and of a kind to well portray the work of the organizations.

McCarthy-Gebert Co., presented a very effective float, showing an airplane with the inscription: "First to fly the Atlantic." The aviator was Miss Josephine Gebert.

Men of the C. P. & St. L. shops had a float drawn by four horses, an engine, lathe, vise and forge represented various departments of work and men were busy with these tools as the parade moved.

Powers, Begg & Co., had their float decorated in the colors of black and yellow, which the firm uses constantly for its wagons and other equipment. Five men from the plant uniformed in white had place in this float and with generous hand distributed "weiner" sandwiches, much to the delight of the boys and girls along the line of march. On this float were Otto Wilner, Clarence Dollear, Al Turner, Henry Taylor and Wm. Covelty, Jr.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles had a handsome float done in white. It was so designed as to give special prominence to the mottoes of the order: "Liberty," "Truth," "Justice" and "Equality."

Mrs. T. D. Babcock of Schenectady, N. Y., drove a prairie schooner with the motto "Coast to Coast." Mrs. Babcock happened to be in Jacksonville with her husband, mother and daughter. Her husband is a veteran of three wars.

The school for the deaf presented a beautiful float with the appropriate motto "America Come Unto Me." Miss Ruby Molebohn with others assisted in portraying the thought behind the design. Green and white colors were used very effectively in making this float.

The colored drum corps was the last of the musical organizations in the parade.

There was a long line of citizens in decorated cars. One of the handsomest was driven by L. F. Berger. The car was surrounded by lattice work and this was intertwined with gorgeous poppies. The effect was very beautiful.

Mr. Rawlings of the R. & R. Sales Co. drove a handsomely decorated car. There were numerous other decorated automobiles and the parade moved in splendid order along the line of march to Jacksonville state hospital. There the order to disband was given and marchers were taken on street cars, in automobiles and carryalls to Nichols park.

Notes.

On every hand both Friday and Saturday came words of commendation for the grand manner in which everything was managed and the absolute smoothness with which everything passed off.

The old boys of the Grand Army and ladies of the Relief Corps greatly enjoyed the attention paid them and the dinner.

Where all passed off so well and so many worked efficiently it is unsafe to mention any particular name in commendation except, of course, the head of it all, Mr. Crabtree, whose management was so fine. But the park board wishes to express thanks to Sheriff Weatherford for the presence of deputies and to several of the special police for the day, also to the county board for oiling the driveways. Without the oil the dust would have been fearful and a trio of teams and water sprinklers would hardly have kept down the dust and would have made slush in the attempt. As it was the driveways were superb.

The successful display of floats meant a great deal of preparatory work. T. C. MacVicar was very active in the designing and execution of floats, and in other ways added to the success of the great pageant.

The Y. M. C. A. in the war time frequently used the phrase that "The Y. M. C. A. goes all the way." So July 4 the canteen float was taken to Nichols park where afternoon to all the men in uniform.

The Grand Army and Relief Corps want to thank F. J. Blackburn most cordially for providing transportation to and from the park. He did his work admirably. Nor should Supt. Jos. Hopper, who worked night and day be forgotten.

One cause of frequent comment was the fine order which prevailed during the day, and the correctness with which the program moved. This was made possible largely thru the services of the numerous marshals, serving under direction of Marshal P. P. Thompson. The parade committee including Frank Plouer, Vorce Bassett and many others outlined a very effective program and devoted the time necessary to make it a success.

Henry Frisch as chairman of the finance committee had a strenuous task in the campaign for funds. All of the expense items have not been compiled but it is believed that the receipts and expenditures will not be far apart.

MAY SAVE EYE SIGHT

Friends of Fred May, who had his eye injured recently, will be glad to know that there is a chance of saving the sight. The bit of steel flew in his left eye. He was taken to a Springfield hospital and there by the use of a powerful magnet it was possible to accurately locate the steel and there is said to be an excellent chance for saving the sight.

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous, Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits over-time.

Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardliness, are due in a large measure to abused nerves. People with plenty of red blood corpuscles and strong, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support.

There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (unless of an organic disease) in America today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost. To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery; to have steady nerve, abundance of red blood and power of endurance; to be not only a man but as men now go, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bio-feren every day for seven days—and take them faithfully.

Take two after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not twice as steady as before; if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen-minded; the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

ILLINOIS TOWNS PLAN LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS

As a result of the spread of the community council movement in Illinois, many towns are launching important local undertakings.

The creation of a community council in a town brings together in one body representatives of every group in the community—the Chamber of Commerce, the Women's Club, the Parent-Teachers' Association, the church societies, the Board of Education, the foreign settlement, the labor organizations, fraternal societies, etc.

Each has some special angle on the needs of the town and out of these democratic conferences, practical plans for the solution of community problems are soon born.

One Illinois town, when it stopped to consider in its first council meeting, that it had spent $125,000 to get a pure water supply into the town, but had no way of disposing of its sewage. The job confronting its newly organized community council is the installment of a proper sewage system.

Another town, thru its community council, re-discovered a small island within its borders and decided to develop it into a general park and recreation space.

Other new community councils are the improvement of country roads, the cleaning up of an unsanitary district of the town, the establishment of a community swimming pool, the building of a Community House, etc., etc.

Information as to the community council movement may be secured from the Community Councils of Illinois, a state-wide organization, with offices at 411 Fine Arts Bldg., Chicago.

MAVERICKS

Well, it surely was some Fourth.

Nothing like it since the news came of the battle of Santiago in 1898.

Jess Willard got $100,000 for his share of the receipts in the Toledo argument and one third of the picture proceeds.

After reading the reports of the fight we are of the opinion that Jess earned every cent he got.

What happened to Willard is what would have happened to Bill Camp at Nichols Park if Governor Lowden had not vetoed the boxing bill.

The police reported one arrest for drunkenness on the Fourth. We didn't think anybody in town had enough money to get drunk at the present price of liquor.

Nothing ever looked so good to us as did those soldiers as they swung down West State street in the parade. However, as we thought of some of the boys who are lying over in France, it made a lump rise in the throat and a mist come before the eyes that sort of blurred the vision.

Everybody we saw Saturday picked the winner of the fight.

Now that the Fourth is over we might as well get ready for the burgoo and chicken fry.

Lots of people found out yesterday that ice water was not such a bad drink.

Speaking of ice water. Ice was almost as scarce as beer Saturday.

EVERYBODY JOINED IN THE CELEBRATION

JULY 4th OBSERVANCE SET
NEW RECORD

County's Soldiers Honored in Many Ways—Guests at Big Dinner
Served at Nichols Park—
Every Feature of the Day Made for Pleasure.

The Fourth of July celebration was generally accounted as both a most orderly and fitting observance. There was noise—plenty of it—but no disorder. The plans for the day had been worked out with such detail by interested committees that nothing had been forgotten or overlooked. The effect of organized effort was everywhere apparent. As a result of the successful day E. E. Crabtree as chairman of the executive committee received a merited amount of praise. The chairman of the committee agreed that the day's program was a success but declared that the loyal committees, royally supported by the people as a whole made the general program possible.

There was the early morning salute and the booming of cannon during the later hours. Everywhere there was the usual July 4 enthusiasm and it was hardly past 9 o'clock before the people began to throng the streets in readiness for the parade. The decorations which Lloyd Reid as chairman had provided added vastly to the color of the parade spectacle.

The Soldiers' Dinner.
At Nichols park the program was carried out with strict attention to detail. Very soon after the men had reached the ground as the bands played they were invited into the great tent dining hall. There the tables were spread and waiting. Chairman Crabtree called on Lieut. Marbach to say grace and a moment later the scores of waitresses were moving down the aisles to serve the hungry men in khaki.

There were more than 600 of them seated at the tables and the serving was so well handled that there were no delays. Most generous preparations had been made by E. A. Brennan as chairman with the result that there was plenty and to spare of a most appetizing kind. In addition to the soldiers, members of the city council and visiting town officers, band men, members of the carpenter's union and others who had been actively identified with the preparations were served.

Following the final course Chairman Crabtree introduced Horace H. Bancroft to preside. After very brief but appropriate remarks Mr. Bancroft introduced Congressman Henry T. Rainey.

During the dinner the people at the tables were entertained by the Paramount Quartet of St. Louis. They were William Stamm, first tenor; S. W. Heckemeyer, second tenor; T. L. Spahn, first bass and Howard Ernst, second bass. They sang popular selections and were many times encored. The First quartet, John Blesse, Ernest Nunes, Justis Tribble and Henry Williamson accompanied by J. O. Sullivan also supplied some very acceptable numbers and both bodies were heartily received.

The throng then adjourned to the shade of the trees where a temporary platform had been erected and there were first entertained by Mrs. Duncan's First war chorus who sang in a very acceptable manner a beautiful song which has already been published.

Mayor Crabtree then asked for attention and said in brief:

We are glad to welcome you all here today. This is a grand testimonial to the returning soldiers and we are glad to welcome them home again. We are glad to see them all looking so well and sincerely hope they will enjoy themselves. They are opening a new future for the land. They will be the leaders and by their brave conduct they have shown what they can do and what our nation may depend upon when threatened by a foreign foe.

The People Back of the Army.
I now have the pleasure of introducing to you Jacksonville's leading orator, H. H. Bancroft, as the chairman of the day. The gentleman said briefly:

This is truly a significant day in the history of civilization, in the nation and in grand old Morgan county and I deem it a privilege as chairman of the reception committee to welcome home on behalf of the people of Morgan county the brave boys who went to the defense of their country. We welcome you as returning heroes from the world war, returning with victory on your banners and a feeling of duty well done and a service to the land without which we should today be under the merciless tyranny of a cruel Hohenzollern dynasty. We have also a note of sadness when we recall the names of those who went out not to return. History records the fact that no army is greater than the spirit which is back of it in the people and we at home tried to attune our hearts and consciences to the great issues of the day and to realize our duty to you and appreciate the valor you showed when you carried the banner of your country unsullied through the war and back home in triumph.

You settled victoriously the problem of war and with your help we settled the problem of peace. We are proud of the young manhood of Morgan county and we greet the soldiers of Morgan county and on the part of the citizens welcome them back home.

Would that war had only the glory side but we must remember the men who did not return but gave their lives as a sacrifice to their land. We honor them too and wherever they fall will be sacred ground, and their sacrifice will give us a new idea of the responsibilities resting on us.

In recognition of their devotion we send up gold star bombs, one for each man and from each of these bombs a fine flag will be released bearing a gold star and the effort will be to secure these flags as they fall and give one to each of the families of the dead heroes. And now in recognition of these boys who will not be with us again I ask you to stand silent a moment with bowed heads. (The request was granted.)

Our sentiments toward the soldiers can well be summed up in one word, gratitude. It is every appropriate on the Fourth of July to have an address and we are fortunate today in having with us Congressman Rainey who has represented the district at the national capital for almost twenty years and has been a member of the great war congress and I regard it as a great honor to greet him here today.

A War to End War.
Mr. Rainey was received with applause and made a very fine address of which only a short outline is given.

This is not a serious occasion. We are here to welcome our heroes home from the great war and bestow on them unfading laurels. We welcome them back at the best time of the year when abundant harvests have been gathered. We wanted to see you in action. I tried to get into the service myself, but they told me I was more than thirty years old. After seeing you at the tables it is easy to understand why you so unmercifully whipped the Hun. This has been a war to end war, although they tell us now there are 23 little wars going on in Europe today.

I was once in Arkansas and saw a lot of razor backed hogs running up and down the hills and bewildered and asked the owner what was the matter with the swine and he said he had lost his voice and the hogs were bewildered and were following the noises made by the wood peckers on the trees. So it is with the warring factions of Europe today; instead of listening to calm reason they are being drawn hither and thither by all sorts of false and foolish leaders and issues.

This is indeed a grand day for you have helped continue this a free country. The president is hastening back from his arduous work of five months and will tell the country what has been done. Today a great airship should land on our coast from Europe. We remember five years ago when the armies of Europe began to mobilize; the cruel invasion of Belgium and the march of the foe who came so near getting to Paris. How the allied nations sprang to arms to repel the invader; we remember how they sank our ships and at last, after long delay how two years ago in April our president signed a declaration of war and how the Huns sneered at the idea of our entering the war and declared we would be a negligible factor in it but today over the feudal castles of the Hapsburgs and Hohenzollerns the flag of the conqueror proudly floats.

The Debts of Nations.
The day after we entered the war the French sent an embassy to us asking for money and we loaned them several times in all ten billions but we don't mind a little thing like that. Nations pay their debts and I am sure that France, Serbia and even Russia will liquidate the obligations we have against them.

At first we had no arms for our soldiers and France said send us the men and we will arm them and they gave them the weapons laid down by the vast number of their own soldiers fallen in the conflict and as our men marched down the streets of Paris they were cheered loudly and the people there took heart. We lacked ships but they were produced by our people by the hundred and at Hog Island was erected a yard capable of turning out a ship each two days. In Chicago we have a shipyard capable of launching a vessel each ten days and now we are loading the first one with food for the starving ones of Europe and soon we shall have water communication between Chicago and the sea-board. We took men from all walks and soon taught them to manage ships. We have a right to boast of what we accomplished when we remember that we landed our great army in France with so little casualty. They used deadly gas and we made one far more deadly. They tried to win the war with fiendish submarines and we beat them at that; they tried to destroy our armies with infernal machines in the air and we beat them at that and now we have liberated the world. Grand and noble is the galaxy of heroes in our history and we today emulate their noble example. Let Chateau Thierry, the Argonne and other sanguinary fields tell the tale of the heroism of American soldiers. The Huns were steadily advancing; the allies were weary and in May, 1918 matters looked bad for the allies but the advent of our boys changed defeat to victory. We have had four million soldiers in the great world war; one of the mightiest armies the world has seen and with ten million able to bear arms we may defy the world. And so I welcome you here from the great conflict and earnestly hope that the mighty conflict will result in liberating the world from monarchies and that liberty full and free will pervade the world.

The great audience listened to the eloquent speaker with close attention after which the gold star bombs were sent up and made a fine appearance. They were a complete success.

Before the men had left the dinner tables Mr. Bancroft and his assistants had distributed the pages of a loose leaf book and each man wrote down some data concerning his time of service. As a result of this feature 400 pages of war records have been secured for a volume which can be readily compiled and made a part of the permanent records of Morgan county.

In the afternoon there was no more imposing feature than the discharge of the bombs in honor of the fallen heroes of Morgan county. The name of each deceased soldier had been attached to a flag caught within one of the bombs and after the discharge a parachute was released and as it descended a silk flag was unfurled. It is the hope that those who secured possession of these flags will turn them over to the Red Cross chapter to be preserved.

Night Program.

At night Chairman Ehnie and his assistants presented the fireworks display which thoroughly pleased the great company that assembled at the park. The fireworks were so placed near the west lagoon that they were in plain view of the vast company. There were thirty special exhibits in the group and from the first exhibit to the grand finale the enthusiastic interest of the people was held. It is said that a greater throng never visited Nichols park. When the fireworks were over the force of special officers was such that the vast number of cars moved forward without confusion. In addition to the fireworks the people enjoyed dancing in the pavilion or other special features of entertainment. There were thousands of picnickers and for those at the park the day was one of unalloyed pleasure.

In the business district the Mardi Gras festivities were directed by Felix E. Farrell. It was a carnival crowd with joy and good cheer prevalent but no disorder. There was dancing on the various platforms and confetti filled the air. Boys and girls, men and women were gay with special paper caps and the blare of the tin horn and the jingling of bells made up a constant carnival refrain. Everybody was good natured and jolly and when the special evening program had been concluded by 10 o'clock there were hundreds who boarded the street cars and went to Nichols park for further festivities.

Ask any one of the big crowd of Morgan county people who took part in the Fourth of July events and they will tell you that it was one big day.

WHITE HALL BOY INJURED IN RUNAWAY

Frank Ross, aged 17 years, son of Elliott Ross, a farmer residing near White Hall, is at Passavant hospital, in a critical condition as the result of a runaway which occurred Saturday morning.

Ross was driving a team thru a wood on his father's farm when it became frightened and ran away. The boy was thrown out and received a compound fracture of the right leg at the knee. One of the bones protruded thru the flesh. A boy who was with Ross at the time ran to the house for help, but it was over an hour before anyone reached him.

He was brought to this city and taken to Passavant hospital where Dr. Hairgrove performed an operation removing the leg above the knee.

The young man is suffering greatly from shock and loss of blood. Dr. Hairgrove said last night that his recovery was a matter of doubt.

This is the third accident that has happened in the family in the past few years. Some years ago a brother received injuries from an explosion in a Fourth of July celebration that caused his death. Another brother was killed in northwestern Canada by a tree falling on him.

AN IMPORTANT JOURNEY.

Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Pletcher have returned from an important journey eastward. First they attended the national convention of district superintendents at Cleveland, Ohio, after which they went to visit a friend of Mrs. Pletcher and then they proceeded to Columbus, Ohio, a few days where they took in the great missionary exhibition. This they found extremely interesting. It is almost equal to seeing the lands at home and witness their quaint ceremonies. They have India, China, Africa, Siam, Corea and other lands represented and many of the customs of those countries are reproduced faithful to life. They have many regular natives and when others are used they disguise themselves completely and imitate the natives of the land represented. Recently they had a grand affair of a chorus of fifteen hundred voices and an orchestra of 100 pieces which exhibited two nights.

The amphitheater in which it was held seats 10,000 people and was packed both times and Mr. Pletcher says he only gained admission to the best seats through a friend higher up.

In Chicago they visited a friend of Mrs. Pletcher and yesterday left for home arriving in due season.

GREENE COUNTY HAS LARGEST ORCHARD

McClay Property Comprise 1,400 Acres—Story of Development of Orchards Told By R. B. Pearce.

An investigation by R. B. Pearce of White Hall, acting on behalf of the weather bureau of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, into the apple situation in Greene and adjoining counties, has been made. It demonstrates that Calhoun county has the largest apple acreage in Illinois contrary to a previous claim that Greene county had in recent years passed Calhoun county in acreage. However, Greene county has the largest individual apple orchard in Illinois, or in the world, for that matter. This orchard was founded by the late A. L. McClay, Sr., and is now in possession of his eldest son, A. L. McClay, Jr. The facts here printed are taken from the Greenfield Argus.

Twenty years ago apples were not considered a commercially important crop in this section, but the pioneering of A. L. McClay, Sr., demonstrated the possibilities of the business and apple culture in Greene and adjoining counties has developed during this period. Up to 1907 was a developing period in the McClay venture and the apple crops were a hit and miss proposition, only two 20,000 barrel crops having been harvested by the McClays up to this time. Mr. George Rice, superintendent of the McClay orchards from almost the time of their inception, states that lack of spraying caused failures in the early years of the apple business of the McClays.

In 1907 the crop amounted to practically nothing, because of the buds dropping from the trees as the result of disease that the development of the science of spraying has since that time combated successfully. Mr. Rice says that the idea of going back twenty years to get at normal crop years would be useless. The late Mr. McClay is the pioneer commercial apple grower of this section of Illinois. He died in 1912. His original orchard comprised 800 acres, located nine miles northwest of White Hall. Lack of marketing facilities and of knowledge of spraying formed handicaps that were not completely solved from the year the original trees were planted in 1891 until 1907.

In 1910 the crops were ruined by a freeze on April 24, when the apples were as big as peas. The years, 1908, 1909, 1911 and all the succeeding years including 1918, the crops have been normal averaging about the same each year. The freeze of April 26, 1919, Mr. Rice says, damaged the crop, and present indications are that the estimate of 30 per cent damage is conservative, and the damage may be even greater.

The McClay orchards now comprise 1,400 acres, all in one body, and this acreage is being extended, together with the transplanting of the exhausted trees. The system of caring for, marketing and harvesting the McClay apples are the model of the horticultural world.

This is an annual affair and all who have ever attended a chicken fry at the Literberry Baptist church, will remember the splendid service they received. The date will be given later.

Everybody is invited and a special invitation is given to the soldier boys of this vicinity to be present at this service and share in the bountiful dinner that will be spread in the basement at the noon hour.

MY HEAD!

When the head feels thick or aches, when one feels all out-of-sorts—perhaps a coated tongue—it is the signal that poisons are accumulating in the system, and should be cleaned out at once.

Auto-intoxication can be best ascribed to our own neglect or carelessness. When the organs fail in the discharge of their duties, the putrefactive germs set in and generate toxins—actual poisons which fill one's own body.

Sleepiness after meals, flushing of the face, extreme lassitude, biliousness, dizziness, sick headache, acidity of the stomach, heartburn, offensive breath, anemia, loss of weight and muscular power, decrease of vitality or lowering of resistance to infectious diseases, disturbance of the eye, dyspepsia, indigestion, gastritis, many forms of catarrh, asthma, ear affection, and allied ailments result from auto-intoxication or self-poisoning.

Take castor oil, or procure a reliable drug store, a pleasant vegetable laxative, called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, composed of May-apple, aloes and jalap.

To accomplish more in less time is the ambition of every man just now, no matter what business he is in. Rapid and economical transportation of all commodities is a business necessity. To get a load to its destination in good condition with the least expense and in the shortest time possible is the job that has been put up to the International Motor Truck by thousands of business men—and the International has made good.

From the men using a single truck to the big corporation using over 600 Internationals, our truck has made good in a big way—from the standpoint of low operating cost as well as steady service.

You will be interested in the sturdy, powerful engine, the simple, efficient internal gear drive, and the drop-forged rear axle. An inspection will convince you that the

If you have found it impossible to secure prompt delivery of a Paige car, please remember that we share your disappointment and keenly regret our inability to have served you.

Our plants are now working at capacity with a very large production schedule, but, despite our best efforts, it has been impossible to keep step with the public demand. Once more—and for the tenth successive year—we are facing an alarming shortage of cars, and must ask our friends to bear with us for the time being.

In a very short time a greatly enlarged Paige plant will be in operation and we shall be able to more than double our output. An army of men is now at work installing the equipment that will make this one of the great manufacturing establishments of the nation. It will cover more than fifteen acres of floor space and include practically every labor-saving device known to modern shop practice.

Until that plant is completed we must ask you to be lenient in regard to the delivery of Paige cars. Be patient with us for just a little while and rest assured that we are conserving your interests as a future owner of "The Most Beautiful Car in America."

TIGERS WIN BY RALLY IN FOURTH

Dauess Receives Good Support in the Pinches—Fielding of Young and Veach and Cobb's Base Running Feature.

Chicago, July 5.—Detroit staged a rally in the fourth inning today and by bunching hits with a sacrifice, an error and a squeeze play made enough runs to defeat Chicago. The score was 6 to 3.

Dauess was given good support in the pinches. The fielding of Young and Veach and Cobb's base running when he went from first to third when Faber tossed his hunt wide to first base were features.

HARRY CLARK'S HOMER WON FOR INDEPENDENTS

Index Catcher Hits Home Run With One Down in Ninth Which Gave the Locals Victory—Visitors Three Scores Were Home Runs.

Harry Clark put his name in the local hall of fame on Independence Day when with one man down in the ninth and the score tied he hit one over the fence for the circuit.

It marked the close of one of the most exciting games seen at Independence park this season. The visitors had a good ball team and all of their three runs were homers, two of them being made by Conroy, second baseman.

Aside from these home run clouds there were a number of bad plays on the part of both teams. This was mixed up with good fielding which was participated in by Flanagan, Briggs and Mahan, who was at third for the locals.

Mahan had a third day and stopped several drives that were red hot. While the game was marked by hard hitting in spots it was largely a pitchers' battle between Padgett and Feeney. Both pitchers were effective and each struck out ten men. Padgett allowed six hits for a total of fifteen bases and Feeney allowed seven hits with a total of ten bases. It was the errors of the visitors that allowed the locals to be on the long end of the score.

How the Runs Were Made.
Springfield scored in the first when McHugh with two down hit a line drive to left field that rolled under the fence allowing him to complete the circuit. Jacksonville tied the game in her half of the same inning. Ruble reached second on Flanagan's wild throw.

Wheeler hit to Flanagan and Ruble was caught at third. Wheeler stole second, took third on a passed ball and scored on Mahan's single.

That ended the scoring until the fifth when the locals pushed two runs over. Clark hit on too hot for Flanagan to handle. He advanced to second when Ruble was hit by a pitched ball. Both advanced on a passed ball. After Wheeler had gone out Feeney to McHugh, Mahan's single scored Clark and Ruble.

The visitors made a run on Conroy's clout over the left field fence. They tied the score in the ninth when Conroy again hit over the fence for the circuit. It looked like an extra inning game after Anders had struck out. However, Clark with one strike and one ball on him clouted the ball into the wheat field in left and the game was over. The score:

ROCK ISLAND YARD MASTER TESTIFIES

Wife Gains 20 Pounds Taking Tanlac—"Wouldn't Be Without It," He Says.

Still another widely known and popular railroad man comes forward with his unqualified endorsement for Tanlac. This time it is C. D. Blatherwick, yard master for the C. R. I. & P. in Kansas City, Kansas, who resides at 341 South 11th street, that city.

"My wife has actually gained twenty pounds in weight since she began taking Tanlac," said Mr. Blatherwick. "In an interview recently, 'and has been benefited so much in every way that I am glad to make this statement, which I hope will be the cause of others who may be suffering as she did getting relief."

"She has been in such a nervous, run-down condition for the past two years that she was confined to her bed a great deal of the time. She was subject to frequent attacks of sick headaches and often had spells of dizziness. She also suffered intense pain from the gas on her stomach, pains in her back and what seemed to be a complete nervous breakdown. She also had a severe attack of influenza, which left her so weak she could hardly stand up."

"She has been wonderfully benefited by Tanlac. In fact, I consider it remarkable the way she has been built up, for she is almost like a different person. She has been relieved entirely of stomach trouble, headache and backache. I am delighted more than I can tell with what Tanlac has done for her and we would not be without it now for anything. It is by far the best medicine she has ever taken."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve; in Mercedosa by Mr. R. B. Field; in Murrayville by M. E. Gilbert; in Waverly by the Wylie Drug Co.—adv.
